SMALL BUSINESS INTERNATIONAL TRADE SYMPOSIUM

For all business owners who are ready to expand their own business in the global marketplace, Mayor Julio Robaina, the City Council and the City of Hialeah are hosting the inaugural Small Business International Trade Symposium brought to you by the US Small Business Administration in Association with America's Small Business Development Center. Manufacturers, distributors and consultants in many fields are expanding their business in international markets.

This is the first of a National series of symposiums designed to provide information on accessing services to support small business exports, educate small businesses on the opportunities created by US Free Trade Agreements, celebrate the role and contribution of Small Business in International Trade, and much more.

Cost of the program is $10.00 in advance for those who are interested and business owners can pay online by credit card at www.floridaexporter.com/smallbusiness. This minimal registration fee includes a lunch and resource provider counseling.

When: Monday, April 7, 2008 at 8:15 AM through 2:00 PM

Where: Milander Auditorium 4800 Palm Avenue

Extra Info: For more information, the media may contact the US Export Assistant Center, SBA Regional Manager Mary Hernandez at 305-536-5521 ext 183.
